Client Money Protection

All Principals, Partners and Directors whose company handle client money are required to hold Client Money Protection. Applicants are required to pay their Client Money Protection annual levy and joining fee with their subscription payment unless you already have Client Money Protection with the NAEA, ARLA, NAVA, ICBA or RICS. Client Money Protection is payable per firm, not per individual. Please ensure that the Client Money annual levy and joining fee is enclosed with your application form or enclose relevant proof of holding CMP elsewhere.

NAVA Client Money Protection Scheme

Principals, Partners and Directors only, holding Client Money are also subject to an initial contribution to the scheme.

CMP Joining Fee	£180.00 (Joining Fee)
Fellow/Member	£200.00 (Current Annual Levy)

What is Client Money Protection (CMP)?

CMP is a mandatory requirement for all NAVA members, at whatever grade, who are Principals, Partners or Directors, who handle client money.

The NAVA scheme is designed to reimburse clients of members who have suffered financial loss due to the dishonesty of the member and/or their firm. The NAVA have given a 'promise' to clients of NAVA members that, up to pre-set limits, they will make reimbursement for such losses. The NAVA have therefore taken out an insurance policy to these same pre-set limits to cover the risk that they have assumed in the 'promise' to the clients of members. The only party insured under this policy is the NAVA.

For the scheme to operate successfully, it is a requirement of NAVA membership that participating members already hold Professional Indemnity insurance (PI), simply because PI insurance would be the first port of call should there be any claims.

The rule regarding client money is contained in the NAEA Rules of Conduct (Rule 1). These can be found on the NAVA website.

There is already a fidelity section in my PI insurance policy – why do I need Client Money Protection?

There is nearly always a fidelity (staff dishonesty) section in a PI policy but that covers pecuniary loss to the actual business (the principals or the policyholder being the insured party) rather than loss of client's money – only the Client Money Protection Scheme will deal with this aspect.

How can I buy into the scheme?

The NAVA's insurance policy which covers the Client Money Protection 'promise' is arranged through Giles. The levy for participation in the NAVA scheme is included in your membership subscription and will then be collected annually with your NAVA membership renewal (evidence of your PI insurance will also be required).

The NAVA also recognises the CMP schemes operated by the ARLA, NAEA, ICBA, and RICS, but will require evidence that you participate in one of these schemes.

Ombudsman for Estate Agents

Please note that in accordance with the Consumer, Estate Agents and Redress Act all estate agents in the UK who engage in residential estate agency work are required to belong to an approved redress scheme dealing with complaints about the buying and selling of residential property. Auctioneers involved in the sale of residential property fall under the definition of estate agents and are therefore required to be registered with an approved independent redress scheme.

If you have any queries regarding the OEA, please contact them direct on 01722 333306
